LEGION FLAG WAY INSTALLED

Old Glory to Fly Before Main Street Stores—Merchants Co-operate in Plan with Andover Post No. 8, American Legion.

The plan for a Legion flag way, providing for beautiful American flags flying from poles at regular intervals along Main street is becoming a reality, twenty-six merchants having placed orders for flags and poles. Twenty-four have already been installed, and more orders are coming in every day.

The Andover National Bank will have three flags, the Andover Garage will have two, and the following subscribers will each have one:

D. A. Hartigan Drug Store, Andover; Press, A. W. Lowe, J. H. Playdon, W. C. Crowley, C. S. Buchanan, Hiller's Store, Lindsay's Market, P. Simeone, Shorten Bros., Walter I. Morse (House), Henry Miller (House), J. F. McDonough, Andover Battery Service Co., Andover Truck and Taxi Co., Lyle Bros., Blaisdell and West, C. J. Francis, H. E. Miller, Andover Candy Kitchen, W. I. Morse, Andover Lunch, Carl Elander, Lawrence Gas & Electric Co.

The Legion flagway reduces the cost and trouble of decorating to a minimum. It also insured the proper observance of flag etiquette, because there is no question as to the position of the blue field and other details which confront the average citizen when he has to display a flag in some way other than on a pole.

The outfit used in the flag way is unique in itself. No rope balyards are used, a fact which eliminates many difficulties. An American bunting flag, four by six feet, with sewed stars and stripes, with strictly fast colors and brass grommets insures a flag that is good for many years service. The pole-holder is 8 1/2 inches long and is imbedded in the sidewalk about a foot from the curb. When the socket is not in use, it is covered with a brass screw cap, fitted to the inside of the housing, making the holder, dirt, water and rust proof. The cap is perfectly level, with the sidewalk, thereby, eliminating all possibility of accident.

The flag staff or pole is of ash, twelve feet long in two six-foot sections, with brass ferrule at the joint. The pole is highly polished and mounted with a bronze ball set on a tapering top.

Commander P. E. Wilson contracted with the Sentinel Flag System, Inc., of Elmira, N. Y., to install the flagway in Andover.

Soliciting Postponed

The rain of Saturday postponed the tag day for the Volunteers of America as the chairman of the committee in Andover, Miss Margaret Hinchliffe, thought that it was too wet a day for the children to be out. The day will be held next Saturday, and it is hoped that all those who are visited will contribute some small sum towards this work which is so worthy. The Volunteers of America are especially interested in the welfare of the children, and they believe that by helping the young people the future of the country is assured. Every amount no matter how small is welcome.

APPOINTED VISITOR

Minister of South Church Chosen to Help Solve Problems of Andover Theological Seminary.

Dr. E. Victor Bigelow, pastor of the South church, has received the distinguished honor of being appointed a member of the Board of Visitors of the Andover Theological Seminary to succeed Dr. Campbell of the Highland church in Roxbury.

The Board of Visitors has oversight of the conduct of the Seminary and of the Board of Trustees. Since the decision of the Supreme Court annulling the merger of the Andover Theological Seminary and School of Theology in Harvard University the problems of the institution are many and complicated. Possessed of $1,000,000 in liquid assets, besides real estate, yet without an endowment sufficient to carry out the purpose of its founders under present-day conditions, its future is a matter calling for wise and careful study.

The present members of the board are Thomas Weston, a Boston lawyer, and Rev. Benjamin Wilnot of Roxbury.

The choice of Dr. Bigelow is especially appropriate since Rev. Jonathan French, a former pastor of the South church, who was engaged in training young men for the ministry, was instrumental in 1808 in originating the Andover Theological Seminary and among the first contributors to its funds were members of the South church, chief among whom was Mrs. Phoebe Phillips, wife of Judge Phillips, the grandson of the first pastor of the church.

Jungle Feast at Berry Pond

The annual outing of the Andover Natural History society at Berry pond was held on Wednesday afternoon, the luxurious barge of Alvah Wright conveying the party both ways. No flowers were gathered, but the flaming maples surrounding the pond and the abundant bright red berries of the black alder, found in the thickets, and the checkerberry which carpeted the ground, amply repaid the nature-lovers for the trip.

In the absence of the usual competent master of the feast, several cooks lent a hand at the frying of bacon and the making of pommerian sandwiches and those with more leisurely appetites roasted corn on pointed sticks.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Chase, Rev. N. C. Bartlett, Mrs. Albert W. Lowe, Mrs. Harry A. Ramsdell, Mrs. Frank M. Foster, Miss Florence Parker, Mrs. Ernest Edmonds, Mrs. Anna Paddock, Miss Lillian Pike, Miss E. Florence Smith, Miss Florence Abbott, Miss Bessie P. Goldenith, Mrs. J. Frank Hale, Mrs. Cecelia Derrah, Miss Clara A. Putnam, Emma Stevens, Virginia Remington, Eleanor Ramsdell, Olive Warden, Allan Edmonds, Edwin T. Brewster.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Percival Perry of Pittsfield, Maine, is visiting relatives in town.

Miss Grace Jenkins of Chestnut street, visited with relatives in Northampton over the week-end.

Katherine and Robert Dolan of Portsmouth, N. H., visited with relatives in town over the week-end.

James Duncan of Worcester spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson of Hidden road recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick Bigelow have returned to their home on South Main street after a motor trip to the Adirondacks.

John Sullivan of Red Spring road is among those who are attending the American Legion convention at Omaha, Nebraska.

Burton S. Flagg is in Montreal attending a meeting of the governing board of the National Association of Insurance companies.

The installation of officers of Andover lodge, 230, I. O. O. F., will take place in the Fraternal hall Wednesday evening, October 21.

Miss Myra J. Bodwell of South Chatham and East Orange, N. J., was a week-end guest of Mrs. Charles E. Abbott at her home on Main street.

Omar P. Chase won four first prizes for his poultry at the Brockton fair which was recently held, receiving ribbons on his cock, hen, cockerel and pullet.

Three new wheels have been added to the alarm at the fire station. For a fire in the vicinity of the Osgood school 74 will be rung, for the River road 75, and for an out-of-town fire 94.

The Delta club of the town is planning a discovery party to be held in the Knights of Columbus hall on October 12. There will be special favors and novelties and a prize waltz. Buckley Franks orchestra will furnish the music. The public is invited.

Crossed wires in the motor of the organ at the Colonial theatre caused a slight smoke, resulting in the ringing of Box 58 early Wednesday evening. The spectators left the theatre in an orderly manner and when the firemen had departed, returned to witness the remainder of the program.

Mrs. George T. Abbott, who for the past twenty-one years has had charge of the kitchen furnishings at the South church, has resigned her position, which she has so capably filled. Her work has been to take care of the silver and china after the various suppers held in the church, and she has carefully and faithfully performed her duties in this line, so that this part of the church work has been very efficiently accomplished.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Chief of Police Frank M. Smith has returned to his duties after a two weeks' vacation.

The first meeting of the sewing department of the Women's Union was held yesterday afternoon in the South church vestry.

The Square and Compass club will hold a pop concert and Halloween party at the Shawheen cafeteria on Friday evening, October 30.

Elaborate plans are being made by members of the Square and Compass club for the Halloween pop cabaret to be held at the Shawheen cafeteria on Friday evening, October 30. Tickets are eighty-five cents each, and by paying an extra cover charge of fifteen cents, seats may be reserved by addressing the chairman at 28 York street.

Telephone Poll Not Complete

Out of a subscription list of 1570, there has been received by the selectmen a total of 1132 replies to the question of the telephone situation, in which the plan of again having free service with Lawrence, or keeping the present system, which in many cases is cheaper, is involved.

The replies have not yet been looked over, as it is felt by the selectmen that everyone of the subscribers should express an opinion, and according to Selectmen Frank H. Hardy, the board will confer with the telephone company at once and see if it wishes to send out another letter to the subscribers, urging those who have not answered either one way or the other to do so. If the telephone company does not wish to do this, the answers which are already in will be opened and the sentiment of the Andover public sent in to the Public Utilities commission.

The letters received will be gone over by both the selectmen and the representatives of the telephone company.

Births

September 27, 1925, a son, Robert, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. McDuffie of Lawrence.
October 4, 1925, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. James Lynch of 118 Salem street.
October 6, 1925, a son to Mr. and Mrs. James Buntin of South Main street.
October 7, 1925, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Grant of Andover street, Ballardvale.

The headquarters of Andover Post 8, American Legion, was the scene last evening of the annual harvest supper, served by the Woman's auxiliary to raise funds for welfare work.

The tables were prettily decorated with fall flowers. Between the hours of five and seven o'clock, nearly two hundred people partook of the excellent supper which consisted of cold corn beef, potato salad, beans, relishes, rolls, coffee, pie, and doughnuts.

Articles made by disabled veterans, including jewelry, portfolios and pocket-books in leather, woven scarfs, and Christmas cards were on sale in charge of Mrs. Thaxter Eaton.

Mrs. John Henderson was chairman of the committee and the following assisted her: Supply—Mrs. Fred G. Cheney, chairman; Mrs. Freeman Abbott, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Joseph A. Miller, Mrs. George Brown, Albert E. Collings.

Kitchen—Mrs. Harry Gouck, chairman; Mrs. Frank Markey, Mrs. Elmer Davis, Mrs. Olin Richardson, James Fairweather. Silver—Mrs. Percy Dole and Miss Edith Abbott.

Pie—Mrs. Frank M. Foster, Mrs. Timothy McCarthy.

Tickets—Mrs. Robert Franz. Chairmen of tables—Mrs. J. Hilton, Mrs. John Alexander, Mrs. Minnie Rodger, Mrs. Mary J. Garside, Mrs. David Hartigan, Mrs. Ralph Berry.

Waitresses—Mrs. Eastwood, Mrs. Douglas Hutchison, Margaret Rodger, Anne Svenson, Doris Hilton, Angeline McCarthy, Mrs. John Doherty, Mary Barrett, Margaret Hurly.

A high standard both as to the supper and the entertainment was set by the "south-enders" of the South church parish who entertained the "north-enders" at a harvest supper given in the vestries last Tuesday evening with the expectation that the courtesy will be returned by the "north-enders" next spring. Three hundred persons sat down in the beautifully decorated vestries to enjoy an excellent and bountiful supper, and the program which followed.

The vestries were decorated with autumn leaves, asters, and snowballs, and on the tables were pumpkin receptacles filled with garden flowers.

The menu consisted of cold corn beef, scalloped potatoes, squash, baked beans, relishes, celery, apple sauce, rolls, coffee, squash and apple pie, doughnuts and cheese.

Following the supper, there were several musical numbers furnished by members of the parish, including a piano duet by Mrs. Henry C. Sanborn and Miss Marion Abbott, songs by Howard Harrington, and violin solos by Miss Susan Ripley.

Mrs. Lillian Prescott, wife of Rev. E. J. Prescott, minister of the North Parish church of North Andover, spoke charmingly of "Our Great-grandmother's Sabbath Day," giving a vivid word picture of the clothes she wore, her home, her family, and her activities, particularly those of the Sabbath day.

PUNCHARD NOTES

Gulick Elected by Juniors

Luther Gulick was elected president of the junior class of Punchard high school for the coming year at a recent meeting held in the school hall. Gulick will undoubtedly make an excellent leader in the class activities, as he is a popular student, as well as an honor student. He is a member of the foot ball team.

Assisting Gulick in handling the affairs of the class of '27 will be William Emmons, vice president; Annetta Anderson, secretary; and Irving Whitcomb, treasurer. Miss Anderson is captain of the girl's basketball team, while Whitcomb is first string end on the football eleven.

Frances Metcalf, Marjorie West, Richard Douglas and Daniel Allen were chosen on the social committee.

First Number of the Punch Harder Out

The October number of the Punch Harder was issued this week. It contains thirteen pages of reading matter and ten pages of advertising.

Following the editorials, the departments include the Literary, News and Notes, Athletics, Jokes, and Exchanges. The stories are by Olive Warden '28, and Margaret Scott '27.

The editorial staff includes Seymour B. Tate '26, editor-in-chief; Isabella Bodwell, '26, and Margaret Scott '27, literary editors; Luther Gulick '27 and Frances Metcalf '27, athletic editors; Daisy Stevens '27, exchanges; Oscar H. Swenson '26 and William V. Emmons '27, business managers; Sherman Boutwell '26 and Caroline Reed '26, jokes; Pamela Proctor '26, and four class secretaries, school news and notes.

Recent Punchard graduates are for the most part pursuing their studies at other schools to fit themselves for greater usefulness in professional or business life, while a few have already become wage earners.

Punchard '23—Manning 0

Amassing a total of points, that exceeds by far any scored by a Punchard High school football team in recent years, the eleven ran roughshod over the Manning High outfit of Ipswich Tuesday afternoon, when the twice postponed contest was played on the Andover playground.

In scoring seventy-three points while Manning was striving to add a first down to the list of achievements for the day, the Punchard High backfield men ran around the ends off tackle, and forward passed their way up and down the field. The game proved to be a little less than a workout for the lovely clan.

Capt. Gordon Coutts of Punchard, ran with all afternoon, crossing the opponents' goal-line no less than four times. Once he made a mad dash for a touchdown from his own 30-yard mark, and three plays later ran through the entire Manning team for 90 yards. He also increased the total of scores by successfully booting drop kicks after the touchdowns.

Will Murphy, the diminutive Punchard quarterback, was much in evidence during the one-sided fray by his splendid open field running. While Murphy registered but one touchdown, his ball carrying was an important factor in enabling his mates to carry it over. McDonald who commenced the game at end, and was later shifted by Coach Gene Lovely to a backfield berth, made two touchdowns. McDonald ran 30 yards for his first score, and on the second one carried the ball over from the 10-yard mark. His work in an open field was fine, and the Andover mentor is greatly pleased with the manner in which all the backs carried the ball after breaking through the primary defense.

Capt. Coutts won the toss, and chose to receive at the south goal. Will Murphy received the kickoff, and behind perfect interference ran the oval back 25 yards before being brought to earth. Coutts then raced around right end, and did not halt until forced out of bounds, after making a gain of 30 yards. These two plays had the ball on the Manning two-yard line from which point Phillips, the stalwart Punchard back, carried it over. Coutts kicked the goal.

Manning again kicked to Punchard, with Blunt receiving. Blunt dropped the ball when tackled but Doherty, the Punchard centre, was on hand and recovered the elusive pigskin as it was bobbing about. Murphy dashed around end for 40 yards, and on the next play, Capt. Coutts brought the ball again to the two-yard mark. Batcheller carried the ball over for the second score. Coutts missed the try for goal.

Capt. Coutts received the kickoff on the next play, and ran 70 yards for a third score, and immediately proceeded to kick the goal. Not content with his performance previously mentioned, he again took the kickoff and this time ran a distance of 90 yards for a touchdown. A record was set in all probability broken, when Coutts completed the second touchdown, as he scored two touchdowns on successive kickoffs.

Coach Eugene Lovely used almost every man on the squad in conquering the Manning team, and the majority of the scrubs showed up well. While not a touchdown was registered in the second period, with the Punchard second and third teams being used, they held their opponents on even terms. In this instance was shown the real strength of the Punchard first team and the comparative weakness of the second string material. The regulars were able to amass a total of 40 points in the first period, and the scrubs were unable to register in the second.

"Lackey" Murphy, who was injected into the fray in the final quarter, proved conclusively that he has the makings of a fine gridiron warrior. His work down the field was excellent, making several fine tackles that won for him the plaudits of the gathering.

Just before the whistle blew ending the first quarter, Punchard was in possession of the ball on Manning's 30-yard line. An off-tackle play with McDonald carrying the ball, netted a touchdown for the suburban team. A moment later Dan Doyle scored when he tossed a forward pass by Coutts, on the 20-yard line. McDonald kicked both goals. At this point Capt. Coutts and Murphy were drawn from the game and the Punchard attack sagged a little.

Manning was enabled to make but one first down, and that coming in the final minutes of the game. Punchard kicked off to the visitors, who failed to gain an inch on two line plays. They then attempted a forward pass, that was partially blocked, but recovered it before it could come to the earth. On the next play another aerial was tried, this one being successful, netting a gain of 15 yards.

A smug gathering was on hand to witness Punchard in their opening game of the season. The contest was scheduled to be played last Saturday, but inclement weather influenced both coaches to call the engagement off. While Punchard showed an attack that completely baffled the Manning team, no criterion of their strength could be gleaned from the engagement, because of the apparent weaknesses of their opponents. Faulty tackling enabled the Punchard backs repeatedly to tear off long gains.

The summary:

PUNCHARD

Firemen's Ball Committee Chosen

The committee which will have charge of the annual firemen's ball was chosen at a recent meeting of the Relief association. Henry Todd will serve as chairman for the second consecutive year and his assistants will be Edward Buchan, William Stevens, Alexander MacKenzie and Henry Pomeroy. The annual ball will take place in the town hall on Wednesday evening, November 25.

Rally Day at the Baptist Church

A lovely October morning, and a good attendance at the Baptist Sunday-School Rally last Sunday are two pleasant things to record. The exercises started off well by singing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," prayer and Bible reading following. It was a pleasant sight to see so many little folks stepping up to be counted in their department or to sing a song, as did the members of the active Junior Christian Endeavor! So many embryo leaders of future days, eager to do their part now!

Though the Cradle Rollers could not all be present, those present with their elders made a substantial showing on the platform, delighting all. The Superintendent offered a brief prayer for God's blessing on the little ones, ere they left the platform, and then he presented diplomas to those graduating into the next grade. There were also a good number of the primary scholars who sang a song.

The other classes rose in response to the roll call, after which the pastor made a few remarks. He called attention to a beautiful new gift, much admired and appreciated. In memory of her husband, Deacon John Hutchins, Mrs. Hutchins has given a beautiful large Christian flag to the church. That and an American flag, a recent gift from the Relief Corps, adorned the platform. "We love the stars and stripes because we are Americans," he said. "We love the other flag, because it represents Christianity. We shall love the American flag more if we love the Christian flag. Mr. Hutchins served under both these flags, a good soldier of both. Let us serve by building up this Sunday School."

The closing feature was a Bible test of the Junior Christian Endeavors, in which Mrs. Bartlett read a Bible book, chapter and verse once, and the child who found it first rose and read the verse. Very quickly were the verses found. Ruth Albers reading the most, for which she was given a rising vote of congratulation. The quickness of the children would put to shame many who have been more years in Sunday School, and they do credit to training received.

The service closed with a hymn and the benediction.

Andover Association to Meet in Methuen

Rev. Alfred C. Church of the Free church will lead the devotional service at the special meeting of the Andover Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers, to be held at the Congregational church, Methuen, on Tuesday, October 13.

In view of the fact that a group of national Congregational leaders are available for meetings of the State Association this fall, and that the Andover Association at its last meeting unanimously voted to accept the offer of their services, the Committee of Arrangements plan to hold a special meeting of the Association on October 13 (the most convenient date for the visiting speakers), as a substitute for the regular semi-annual meeting of October 27.

It is therefore necessary that all business which was to have been transacted at the semi-annual meeting be postponed to the annual meeting next April. Each church is requested to send at least five delegates, and as many more as possible, to this special meeting.

The program:

AFTERNOON
3:00 Devotional Service, conducted by Rev. Alfred C. Church, Andover.
Report of Committee on Systematic Benevolence. Rev. Harry J. Newton, Lawrence.
Address—Home Problems and Possibilities. Rev. George L. Cady, D.D., Secretary American Missionary Association.

Discussion of The Merger and other questions to come before the meeting of the National Council in Washington, led by Dr. Cady.
6:00 Supper

EVENING
7:00 Devotional Service, conducted by Rev. Wm. B. Tutill, D.D., Lowell.
Music under the direction of Miss Georgia B. Easton, Methuen.

Address—Our Nearest Task. Mrs. Henry Francis Smith, President Massachusetts Woman's Home Missionary Union.
Address—The Church Overseas. Rev. Ernest W. Riggs, D.D., Secretary A. B. C. F. M., Boston.

Adjournment.
Officers of the Association: Moderator, Rev. T. G. Langdale, Lawrence; secretary, Rev. Harry J. Newton, Lawrence, until 1927; Rev. F. A. Wilson, Andover, until 1928; Rev. Clinton W. Carvell, North Andover, until 1929; and the secretary, ex officio.

Demurrer Lost

Judge Raymond in the jury waived session of the superior court at Salem last week, overruled the demurrer of defendant in the equity suit of Walter J. Morrissey of Andover against John McDonough, which sought an injunction against defendant proceeding with a building being erected over what plaintiff claims is a right of way by necessity from his rear land to Park street.

The demurrer was on the principal ground that the question of the existence of a right of way by necessity belonged in the Land court for determination, and therefore having a complete remedy at law proceedings in equity would not lie.

The suit will now have to be tried upon its merits and will probably go on the Boston list to get a speedy hearing.

Looking Back Twenty-five Years

O. P. Chase is spending ten days or two weeks at Springfield, Vermont.

The republican town committee have engaged headquarters in Carter's block over F. E. Gleason's coal office.

Miss Margaret Whittemore, who has studied at Mt. Holyoke, has taken a position as a private tutor to the daughter of the superintendent of a ranch at McMillan, New Mexico.

Hardy & Cole are building additions and making alterations on Judge Bell's house at the corner of Bartlett and Morton streets. The Judge and family will probably not move into the house until the latter part of November.

John N. Cole, Barnett Rogers, George H. Poor, Frank E. Gleason and George W. Foster, attended the Republican Congressional convention at Woburn.

Miss Means, principal of Abbot academy, Dr. Bancroft, principal of Phillips academy, Miss Florence W. Gay, and Miss Annie Perry Hincks, attended the quarter-centennial celebration of the founding of Smith college at Northampton.

Appropriate to the fall season was the harvest social held by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at the Baptist church. Handsome decorations of autumn foliage and flowers, gave a warm touch to the vestry. The attendance was large, all seemingly enjoying the attractive program and amusements arranged by the committee.

Each reading was appropriate to the season. Miss Ada Piddington read "The Huskers" by Whittier. Miss Alice M. Stone sang "Out of the Deep." "To the Fringed Gentian" was read by Miss Lillian Dodge, and H. H. Hill read a selection from the Uncle Remus Tales, "Brer Fox's Sour Grapes." Refreshments were served during the evening and games in which all could take part brought this delightful social to a close.

John Bacheider, organist at Christ church, has opened a music room in the Musgrave block.

Miss Anna M. Towle of Savoyville, P.Q., formerly of Andover, is visiting at the residences of Mrs. William S. Jenkins and Miss E. G. Ellis.

Rev. F. W. Klein, formerly pastor of the Baptist church here, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Regular Baptist church at Stratham, N. H., and will leave with his family for his new field of labors on October 10.

Next Saturday evening, the Andover Burns club will hold its first meeting of the present season at Abbott Village hall. Thomas E. Rhodes will speak on the "Situation in China."

At the meeting of the Andover Cricket club, David L. Coutts was elected secretary, to serve for the balance of the year. It was voted that a portion of the crease be relaid. Nothing will be done in relation to rebuilding the clubhouse until spring, except the procuring of plans and other necessary arrangements.

William M. Wood is having a pretty rustic bridge built over the gate at the outlet of Poor's pond.

Two Lowell cyclists who were riding to Andover to visit some friends at Phillips academy, ran into a large Newfoundland dog which was lying in the shadow of some trees on the West Parish road, beyond Haggett's pond. The forward bicyclist, Carl Munn, son of a well-known grocer in Lowell, was thrown heavily, and striking on the point of his shoulder, fractured his collar bone. His companion was not injured seriously, escaping with a sprained thumb. Fortunately the wheels were not broken, so that the young men were able to ride to Andover, Munn riding all the distance up hill and down with one hand. Dr. Torrey was visited and he attended to Munn's shoulder. They returned to Lowell by team.

At a meeting of the board of registrars held at the Town clerk's office, thirteen more names were added to the voting list: Harry Bourdais, Michael F. D'Arcy, Thomas F. D'Arcy, Edward Dawson, George B. Elliot, William H. Gibson, Arthur R. Jackson, Joshua Milner, Robert A. Mitchell, Walter

Presented with Tea Set

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Valentine Jr. of Brechin terrace were tendered a surprise party last Friday evening when a group of their friends presented them with a beautiful tea set. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. David Gillespie.

A musical program was rendered during the evening. Violin solos were given by Anna MacFarlane and dances by Helen Lynch and Mrs. G. V. Brown. Miss Nellie Sullivan rendered vocal selections.

Those present: Mr. and Mrs. William Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. James Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan, Mary Lynch, Mrs. David Milne, Katherine Milne, Mrs. John Dugan, Mrs. Henry Bland, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Alexander Bertram, Mrs. William McDermitt, Mrs. Charles Valentine, Miss Nellie Sullivan, Miss Elizabeth Valentine, Mrs. Alexina Guthrie, Miss Phyllis Wurtzberger, Anna MacFarlane, Peggy Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan, Jr., Mrs. Fred Haynes, Mrs. J. Sjomie, Mr. L. Ryder, Mrs. G. V. Brown and Mrs. David Gillespie.

Has Office in Lowell

Dr. Augustine Conroy of this town, son of the late Dr. E. C. Conroy, has opened an office in the new Fiske building at the corner of Jackson and Central streets in Lowell, where he will engage in the general practice of medicine.

Dr. Conroy received his education in the public schools of Andover, Pynchard and Phillips academy, and is a graduate of Tufts Medical school. He has served on the house staff of St. Anne's hospital in Fall River, and at the Roxbury hospital and has been stationed at the Lawrence General hospital recently. For the past year he has been house physician at the St. John's hospital in Lowell.

Dr. Conroy served in the World war, being a member of the 302nd Machine Gun battalion of the 8th U. S. Infantry. He is a member of Andover post, No. 8, American Legion.

Abbot Academy Notes

The regular weekly service was held on Sunday evening and was conducted by Miss Bailey. Next Sunday evening Rev. Markham W. Stackpole will be the speaker.

On Tuesday evening, the Senior Class was entertained at an informal dance given by Miss Frances Flagg.

A party of Seniors enjoyed a ride to Buxford on Jerome Cross's trolley coach on Wednesday morning.

S. Rhodes, Eric A. Starbuck, Jeremiah A. Towle, Xury T. Wood.

Charles Buchan, for several years employed by H. P. Noyes, the furniture dealer, has entered the employment of Alfred Kaiser.

H. Bradford Lewis of Andover and William Oswald have left Montreal, with the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company.

At last the Lawrence & Reading road have obtained what they asked for, a location on South Main street from the hill to the Square, and they will now be in a position to treat with the Lowell, Lawrence & Haverhill road with a view to obtaining the use of the latter's tracks.

Notwithstanding the fact that a location has been granted by the selectmen, the rails cannot be laid until the exact position which the rails are to occupy, providing the two roads are not able to come to terms, shall have been determined by the Board of Selectmen. It is rather a difficult thing to decide what the outcome will be and whether the selectmen will finally allow the Lawrence and Reading road to lay rails side by side with the L. & H. tracks, with flat rails, macadamized between, or with the two outside rails six inches or so apart, called interlining.

The Phillips academy students have apparently begun their childish ringing of the fire alarm again after a summer of quietness. Chief Hardy has taken prompt action by announcing that until further notice, Boxes 35, 37, 41, 42, 44, 45 and 46, will not be responded to until the second alarm.

The annual meeting of the Andover Home for Aged People was held at the home of the secretary, Miss E. M. E. Sanborn, 4 Morton street, where the following directors were elected for the coming year: George H. Torrey, president; Mrs. Lizzie A. Wilson, vice president; Mrs. Annie S. Downs, second vice president; George A. Parker, treasurer; Joseph A. Smart, auditor; Miss E. M. E. Sanborn, secretary; Dr. C. F. P. Bancroft, Mrs. Abby J. Smart, Miss Mary A. Ballard, J. W. Barnard, Miss Susanna E. Jackson, Miss Emily Carter and Mrs. Mary Gleason, directors.

James P. Butterfield, one of Andover's best known citizens, passed away on September 30. By the sudden death of his father, James Butterfield, a noted millwright, the whole responsibility of his business was thrown upon young James when he was only twenty years old. He constructed mills in Houston, Texas, in Lowell, Lawrence, Canton Andover and North Andover.

He served on the Andover Board of Public Works, as a member of the Board of Selectmen for a brief term, as a trustee of the Andover Savings bank, and a director of Merrimack Mutual Fire Insurance company.

Bold sneak thieves were at work at the dormitories of Phillips academy last Friday afternoon. They secured nearly $75 in money, two open-faced gold watches and valuable scarf pins, those obtained in one room alone being set down as worth $60, $20, $10, and $5 respectively.

Rally Sunday

The new chairs for the South church vestry arrived on Saturday, otherwise the seating capacity of the newly renovated vestries would not have been large enough to accommodate all the scholars and visitors on rally Sunday. Rev. Mr. Shipman, who returned from abroad only the Thursday before, delivered an earnest address to the gathering. Superintendent Charles H. Gillett was much pleased at the number which attended the exercises.

Down on Railroad street, the Free church Sunday school held their Rally Day exercises. A rally day pamphlet was used, the hymns of which were set to patriotic music. The Free church orchestra played the accompaniments to the songs. J. Newton Cole, superintendent of the Sunday school, made a short address to the scholars and teachers.

Like her Congregational sisters, the Baptist Sunday school observed Rally Sunday, and like them was blessed by a large attendance. Special effort had been made to add to the attractiveness of the Sabbath school rooms by beautiful warm-tinted leaves, goldenrod and other fall flowers placed around the organ and platform. Special music, addresses and words of welcome from superintendent to school and teachers, constituted the service of the day.

Official Visitation of Knights of Pythias

Garfield lodge, Knights of Pythias were hosts to a large number of brother members in fraternal hall Tuesday evening, when an official visitation was held. Remarks were given during the evening by visiting and local officers. Grand Chancellor Henry E. Miller was in charge of arrangements for the visitation.

Cloud Digger Sees Bad Winter

The Cloud Digger's seventy-fourth semi-annual prediction of weather for the coming six months is out. This predictor of weather at the exact date of over one hundred storms, earthquakes and tidal waves in the past thirty-seven years, it is claimed.

He keeps his identity secret. No man, no paper and no organization has even been able to truthfully say who the Cloud Digger was, although many think they know.

For 1925 up to March 21, 1926, he predicts a bad winter, the first part of autumn to be very dry, only one big storm, about September 20 to 25, dry up into October.

In November he says: "This is to be the worst November, New England has known in nearly half a century, much cold weather, several bad storms, one toward the last half of the month, very, very bad, probably snow, but no one can tell whether it is to be snow or rain ten hours in advance."

December is to have much mild weather and about three very bad storms, possibly all snow. There will be no green Christmas around Boston this year.

From December 26 to January 4, a mild, open period, followed by ten weeks of very bad weather. One storm hardly dies away in January, February and up to March 15, until another takes its place. From March 15 to 6 there will be one of the worst storms in half a century.

Odd Fellows Elect

Claremont I. Gray was elected to the office of noble grand by the members of Andover lodge, 230, I. O. O. F. at a meeting held in Fraternal hall.

Other officers elected were: Harry Thomas, vice grand; Herbert Ford, recording secretary; Ralph Berry, financial secretary; trustees for three years, George Holt and William Faulkner; delegates to the grand lodge, Alexander McKenzie, Walter Buxton, and Herbert Ford.

Plans were made for the installation of the officers on Wednesday evening, October 14. Deputy Grand Master Lloyd Flint of Lowell will be the installing officer.

Thou Shalt Not

Pirates on the sporting page, and bandits on the front page: such are the news items confronting the reader of eastern Massachusetts newspapers this week.

Three hundred years ago the inhabitants of these parts had reason to expect an attack from the natives at any time and to protect themselves they regularly carried far-reaching guns. But the day when every man looked out for himself is gone. The development of the community has meant the disarming of the individual, while the work of protecting the people from banditry has been delegated to specialists in this sort of business. It is with good cause, therefore, that the public looks to the police when experts in committing crime do as intensive a business as they have been doing here of late. We have had three serious payroll robberies in the last few days. Two of these have been accompanied with murder, and thousands of dollars have been stolen in the Cambridge, Lawrence, and Waltham hold-ups. Such desperate crimes rightfully arouse a peaceful community, for a few desperados endanger the property and the lives of countless citizens. When out for money, the lives of other people mean nothing to these men. As a result the whole populace is alarmed.

Andover has been fortunate enough to escape these large-scale operators. But in a smaller sense this town has experienced a number of breaks in the past few months. It does not seem that much has been done to bring the offenders to justice.

Many centuries ago the Ten Commandments were handed down to mankind. Since then they have been taught to generation after generation in all western countries. Three of these commandments are against coveting, stealing, and killing. Countless laws have been based on these three precepts to fit the conditions of our complex urban life. But burglars and murderers care nothing for the laws of God or man, however indispensable to civilization. In one cunning and bold gesture they sweep aside some of the most precious tradition of antiquity and some of the most essential restraints of modern days. In doing so they throw out a stinging challenge to all believers in law and order.

To have our courts administer more severe punishment when these daring law-breakers appear before the bar of justice is not in itself sufficient to reduce the appalling brigandage of the last few days. In former days when penalties were much heavier than they are at present, a far larger proportion practiced thievery than do now. Hanging a man for horse-stealing certainly put no end to that evil.

Harsh sentences on the part of the judiciary must be accompanied by conditions which make the chances of a criminal's arrest much more probable than it now is. So long as a burglar thinks he can "get away with it" he does not stop long to consider the penalty which will be imposed on him in case he does get caught. Practical certainty of arrest is the first condition necessary to restrain the criminal. This of course depends upon the competency of the police to outwit professional gangsters who are very clever at their nefarious business. The public may reasonably expect the authorities to show results in this respect, for it is what they are being paid to do.

Speedy apprehension should be followed without delay by a quick trial, and while the penalties for the guilty party should be severe, they must not be out of proportion with those administered for other crimes. If, as was the case the other day, a payroll robbery without murder means the maximum sentence of life imprisonment, a burglar will consider it a good risk to murder on the spot; the evidence against him for it can make but little difference in the sentence if he is caught, and it will greatly reduce his chances of being caught. To make sentences for burglary too severe is like placing a bounty on murder, so the various penalties must be kept in proportion to the seriousness of the offense.

The main step to be taken in a campaign for the reduction of brigandage is to catch the guilty party quickly. This is a problem for the police to solve. Once this is done, if the courts are not lenient, would-be burglars will learn that to covet, to steal, and to kill are not profitable practices.

Editorial Cinder

In the passing of E. Kendall Jenkins, Andover loses a man whom we are pleased to think of as typical of New England,—reared in a country town, educated in its public schools, devoting his young manhood to his country in time of war, a public servant in times of peace, serving his country and his town in many offices, a devoted husband and wise father.

Garden Club Holds Exchange Meeting

An exchange meeting of the garden department of the November club was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Kate P. Jenkins, with twenty-four members and visitors present.

A variety of perennial roots and bulbs was for sale in the summer house in the garden, after which the company went indoors to listen to a talk by Miss Hetzer of the Lowthorpe school in Grafton.

Specimens of flowering plants and fruiting shrubs which are desirable for the fall garden were shown and described by the speaker who also gave many useful hints for division of perennials and transplanting at this season. Four members of the Lawrence Garden club were present.

At the close of the meeting, tea was served. The next meeting will be held Tuesday morning, November 17, at ten o'clock, with Mrs. T. Dennis Thomson, Abbot street.

School Children Visit Fire Station

The pupils of the John Dove school, under the leadership of their teachers, visited the central fire station Tuesday where they were instructed in the methods used by the local department for answering fire alarm calls. Chief Charles F. Emerson explained the workings of the various pieces of fire apparatus.

The visit to the central fire station is part of the program of fire prevention week.

Police Court Notes

Harold B. Stark, charged by Andover police with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor was sentenced to serve thirty days in the House of Correction by Judge Frederick J. MacLeod in the first session of the local Superior criminal court last Friday. He pleaded guilty.

Rev. Alfred C. Church to Be Installed Next Thursday

The exercises in connection with the installation of Rev. Alfred C. Church as minister of the Free Christian church will take place on Thursday, October 15.

At four o'clock in the afternoon an Ecclesiastical Council will be held to examine the candidate. Churches and individuals invited to form the council are the churches of the Andover Association, the Tompkins Avenue Congregational church in Brooklyn, N. Y., the First Congregational church in Gardner, the Congregational church in Williamstown, Conn., the Orthodox Congregational church in Billerica, Rev. Oliver B. Loud of West Methuen, Rev. Charles H. Oliphant of Methuen, Rev. Markham W. Stackpole of Milton and Rev. Frederick C. Wilson of Richmond.

In the evening the installation service will be held. Beginning at quarter past seven, there will be a program of organ music by Gerald Frazee.

The installation sermon is to be preached by Dr. J. Percival Huget, pastor of the Tompkins Avenue Congregational Church of Brooklyn, N. Y. He is one of the most influential men in the Congregational denomination today, being President of Congregational Home Mission Society, the Congregational Church Building Society, and the Congregational Sunday School Extension Society. Beside being the president of these Church Extension Societies, he is the chairman of a Commission on International and Inter-Racial Relations and the Near East.

The prayer of installation will be made by Rev. Frederick A. Wilson, D.D., pastor emeritus of the Free church. The charge to the church will be given by Rev. Arthur S. Wheelock, pastor of the First Congregational church of Williamstown, and the right hand of fellowship by Rev. E. Victor Bigelow of the South church.

At six o'clock a supper will be served to about a hundred specially invited guests. The public is invited to the evening service at 7:15 o'clock.

The program for the evening service:

To Have Coach for Grammar School Athletics

At the regular meeting of the school committee held Tuesday evening, it was voted to expend a sum of money for a coach for the athletics of the Stowe Junior High School. The coach will probably be one of the instructors in the High School. It was found that the school bus was working satisfactorily, Alvah Wright covering all the routes and carrying the children from the outlying districts in time for the school sessions. The employment of only one bus has saved the town $900 in expense. Several other matters of business were discussed, on which final action will not be taken till another meeting.

The financial statement for the month is as follows:

General Expense	$541.05
Expense of Instruction	7482.09
Textbooks	984.76
Expense of Operation	611.62
Miscellaneous	258.67
Maintenance	1245.88
Auxiliary Agencies	105.00
Transportation	779.48

Wedding

SURRETTE—BURBINE

St. Augustine's church was the scene of a pretty wedding Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, when Miss Mary Burbine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Burbine of Buxton court, was married to Eli Surette, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Surette of Eelbrook, Nova Scotia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John A. Nugent, O. S. A., pastor of the church.

The attendants were Miss Frances McGrath as bridesmaid, and John Burbine, a brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was charmingly gowned in a white georgette dress, trimmed with pearls. Her tulle veil was caught up with orange blossoms and she carried a showy bouquet. The bridesmaid was dressed in a pink georgette dress with a picture hat to match. She carried pink carnations.

After the ceremony a reception was tendered to relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents.

A wedding trip to Nova Scotia will be taken by the young couple, and upon their return they will reside at 10 Buxton court.

Mother's Club Notes

The regular meeting of the Andover Mother's club and Parent-Teacher Association was held in Punched school Wednesday afternoon, with a good attendance of members present. Mrs. James Walker, president of the club, presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Lillian Cole and Mrs. Angie Miller were chosen delegates to represent the club at the state conference which will be held in Springfield, October 28, 29, 30. Miss Moreton, school nurse, gave a very interesting talk in regard to her work among the school children which was greatly enjoyed by those present. The club voted to give a generous donation in aid of Miss Moreton's work as school nurse.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Lynn Cole, Mrs. Angie Miller, Mrs. Eva Buxton.

A cordial invitation is extended to all mothers to join the club. The meetings are held in the Punched High School, the first Wednesday of every month.

"ALWAYS AT YOUR CALL"

Now is the time to have CURTAINS laundered

Only a few more weeks and winter will be on us—now, when you can comfortably take them down, is a good time to have curtains washed.

Send us yours next week and we will launder them softly in clear water and mild, pure soap and dry them precisely to measure. We are able to do this because we measure every curtain before it is washed—then by means of a remarkable dryer that we have, we dry each exactly its original size and shape.

Have your curtains laundered this better way by phoning us today.

Welcome Home MacMillan Arctic Expedition

ZENITH WEEK—Oct. 4 to Oct. 9

Our Greetings to Commander MacMillan and Commander McDonald—home from the Arctic.

The story of the MacMillan Arctic Expedition—"the greatest expedition of modern times"—is also the story of another triumph for Zenith radio.

"Zenith" was MacMillan's exclusive choice because he had found by actual experience that it gave sure, dependable results.

Zenith radio in the Arctic established new records for long-distance communication, penetrated the heretofore impenetrable Auroral Band. On this, his latest voyage to the Frozen North, Zenith radio enabled him to keep in instant touch with America, Europe, New Zealand—to all parts of the world—and to send back word of his discoveries to the civilized world.

What was good enough for MacMillan, the radio he relied upon and never found wanting, is good enough for you.

At the time we welcome home the MacMillan Expedition we welcome also the opportunity to demonstrate Zenith—"the best there is in radio"—in your home, at your convenience. Call or telephone, today.

Plan Benefit Whist

At a recent meeting of Andover council, 1078, Knights of Columbus, held in K. of C. hall, plans were formulated for a benefit whist party on Friday evening, October 16. Financial Secretary Timothy Mahoney who presided over the meeting in the absence of Grand Knight Frank S. McDonald, appointed a committee to supervise the arrangements. The committee, John Cussen, Frank McBride, and James Flannery.

District Deputy Frank L. Carey of Lawrence will install the newly elected officers of the council Thursday evening, October 15. It is hoped a large number of members will be on hand for the installation and business of importance to be transacted. Refreshments will be served.

Youngsters Patronize Diner at B. & M. Station

The unusual appearance of a diner belonging to a construction crew of the Boston & Maine, sidetracked in the Andover freight yard so stimulated the curiosity of a dozen youngsters that nothing less than a complete examination inside and out would satisfy them.

Taking advantage of the crew's absence over Sunday, they broke and entered and appropriated anything which took their fancy, their taste varying from a Shriner's pin to wrenches and three pounds of butter.

After a busy day on Monday, the police rounded up the young gangsters and recovered most of the plunder. The culprits will be dealt with later.

Installed Pastor at Merrimac

The installation of Rev. Harry Stevens Lowd, as pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church in Merrimac, took place on Tuesday of this week.

Unqualified commendation was given his dignified and well-prepared statement of his beliefs delivered at the examination held in the afternoon. The installing prayer was offered by his father-in-law, Rev. Frederick E. Emrich, D.D., and the charge to the pastor was given by Rev. Frank R. Shipman, for many years pastor of the South church, which was Mr. Lowd's church home as a young man.

Rev. E. Victor Bigelow and Miss Nellie H. Farmer were delegates to the installation from the South church.

The order of service for the evening exercises was as follows:

Rev. Harry S. Lowd is a graduate of Punchard High School and the Bangor Theological Seminary. His first charge was in East Walpole where a new church edifice was built during his pastorate. He was formerly pastor of the Riverside Congregational church of Lawrence, and later of a church in San Diego, California. At Nagautuck, Connecticut, he was director of religious education.

Mr. Lowd is the son of Mrs. Joseph H. Lowd of Bartlett street.

Tuesday Club Rummage Sale

Have you looked up those things you are going to give to the Tuesday Club Rummage Sale? If not, will you do it now? There are people who will be glad to buy the things for which you have no further use. This is a time when you can help yourself by disposing of articles no longer needed; when you can help others by giving them a chance to buy things they do need, for a modest sum, and help the Tuesday Club to raise funds for the most worthy while charity work.

Isn't this the opportunity for which you have been waiting?

The Guild will be open Wednesday, October 21, and Thursday, October 22, for contributions, or collections will be made if you call Mrs. Colquhoun, telephone 260, or Mrs. Hardy, telephone 69. The date of the sale is Friday, October 23.

Baptist Mission Circle Meets

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Mission Circle of the Baptist church was held yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. C. Norman Bartlett.

Reports were read, as well as a missionary letter and other literature from the Mather Industrial School for girls in Beaufort, S. C.

Matters of business were discussed and plans were made for the winter's program.

Plan Improvements at Fire Station

Chief Charles F. Emerson of the Andover Fire Department is contemplating several needed improvements at the central fire station. The parlor will be given a new hardwood floor shortly and new rugs purchased to replace the present rugs which have been in use many years. The parlor is equipped with a victrola and a radio which contribute greatly to the pleasure of the members of the local department. The new flooring will be put in as soon as possible. The entire cost of the improvements will not exceed $100.

Choral Society Organizes

Thirty enthusiastic members of the Andover Choral Society gathered for the first rehearsal in Punchard hall on Monday evening.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Eugene M. Weeks; vice president, Gordon S. Brown; secretary, Miss Helen Eaton; treasurer, Edwin T. Brewster. Dr. Carl F. Platteicher was chosen conductor.

It is hoped that many who are interested in chorus singing will join the society and be present at the next rehearsal to be held in Punchard hall next Monday evening at 7.45 o'clock. Rehearsals have begun on Handel's "Messiah" which will be presented at Christmas time.

North Andover Notes

Next Sunday morning at the North Parish, North Andover, Rev. E. J. Prescott will preach the first sermon in a series upon the general subject "Evolution and Its Relation to Religious Thought of the Present Day."

The subject for the first sermon will be "Evolution and the Idea of God." Other subjects to be announced will be "The Evolution of the Bible," "The Place of Jesus in Evolution," "The Evolution of Conscience and the Moral Law," "Evolution and the Belief in a Future Life."

Ladies' Night Whist Party

A ladies' night whist party was held at the rooms of the Square and Compass club last evening.

Bridge was played at all the tables and prizes were awarded as follows: Lady's first, Mrs. T. H. Lane; consolation, Miss Blanch Holmes, gentleman's first, George A. Carter; consolation, Stanley V. Lane.

Following play, the guests were surprised to find the tables spread in the lounge downstairs, where refreshments were served.

Shower and Mock Marriage

Miss Whitcomb was the guest of honor at a surprise party and shower held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kent of 847 Turnpike street, North Andover. Miss Whitcomb will shortly become the bride of Walter Kent.

A mock marriage was a part of the evening's entertainment, which also included music and games. Many useful and pretty gifts were received.

Refreshments were served.

Obituaries

THOMAS LOW

Thomas Low, a resident of Andover for the past seventeen years, died Tuesday morning at the home of his brother, Robert Low, after a long illness. He was forty years of age. Mr. Low was born in Arbroath, Scotland, but had lived in this country since his young manhood. His wife died last year, after a long illness with paralysis. One son, Roland, two brothers, Robert of this town and William of New York, and one sister, Mrs. Patterson of New York survive him.

VICTOR SHORTEEN

The funeral of Victor Shorteen, who passed away at St. Petersburg, Florida, was held at the family home, 53 Abbot street, at 2.30 p.m. Sunday. Rev. C. W. Henry officiated at the services. Burial was in Spring Grove cemetery. Deceased is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Shorteen, one sister, and seven brothers.

The bearers were James Dempsey, Joseph McNally, John MacLeish, Stephen McNally, Vincent Irvine, Michael Byrne.

GEORGE S. MINOR

George S. Minor, an old resident of Andover, passed peacefully away on Tuesday at his home on Main street, in his eighty-fifth year. Although Mr. Minor had not been well for some time, he was able to be about the house on Tuesday morning.

Mr. Minor was born in Ceylon, his father being Eastman S. Minor, a missionary to India from the American Board.

In 1872 he was married to Nellie Andrews in New Haven, Connecticut, and they lived in that city for several years. Mr. Minor during that time was connected with a crockery firm. They came to Andover in 1879, and have made it their home since. Mr. Minor was actively interested in the South church, serving for many years as deacon and superintendent of the Sunday School.

Besides his wife there are three children who survive: William P., of Concord, N. H.; Frederick J., of Montclair, N. J.; and Henry C., of Philadelphia. There are also several grandchildren.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. E. Victor Bigelow were held in the South church this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, and burial was in the South church cemetery.

E. KENDALL JENKINS

Andover's oldest citizen, E. Kendall Jenkins, passed away last evening at his home on School street, in his ninety-fourth year.

Mr. Jenkins was born on the Jenkins homestead at Jenkins Four Corners on October 14, 1831, the son of Captain Benjamin and Betsey Berry Jenkins. He was educated in the local schools and Phillips academy and served with honor in the Civil war. First enlisting in the Light Infantry he transferred to the First Massachusetts heavies and took part in many battles, being wounded at Cold Harbor, and discharged with the rank of sergeant. An ardent G. A. R. man, he was a charter member of Bartlett Post, 99, of Andover, and an active worker until a few years ago.

In public life Mr. Jenkins has been prominent in town and county affairs. He was for twenty-five years the trusted and efficient treasurer of Essex County. He has also served the town of Andover as town clerk, tax collector, town treasurer and school committee member. For fifty-two years he was trustee of the Memorial Hall library, and was the last survivor of the original members of the board.

On November 24, 1864, he was married to Nancy Jenkins, daughter of Ebenezer and Sally Russell Jenkins, whom he survived by less than three months.

Mr. Jenkins leaves a daughter, Miss Alice Jenkins of this town, as well as a son, Philip Jenkins of Portland, Maine.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. E. Victor Bigelow, will be held Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

FRANK SCHULTZ

Frank Schultz of West Tibbury, a student at Phillips academy, died Thursday, at the Isham infirmary.

He was a member of the Upper Middle class, and an honor student.

Ladies' Benevolent Society to Hold Rummage Sale

The Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Free church will hold rummage sale in the Musgrove building, Tuesday afternoon, October 13, at two o'clock.

There will be the usual variety of articles found at rummage sales, including clothes and household furnishings, but the committee has made a special effort to secure a supply of children's clothes. Mothers will find this an unusual opportunity to secure comfortable winter garments for their children at a reasonable price.

To Attend Convention at Lynn

The King's Daughters and Sons of Essex County will hold their annual convention with the First Baptist Church of Lynn on October 15. The two sessions will be held in the First Baptist church, corner of Park and North Common streets, at 10.30 and 2.00. Luncheon will be served by the hostess circle at fifty cents.

The speakers for the day are Mrs. Victor E. Miller, President of the Massachusetts Branch of The King's Daughters and Sons, Miss Hazel E. Metcalf, Visiting Housekeeper of Lynn, and Rev. Eben F. Francis, also of Lynn. Delegates from all the Circles are expected to give reports from their respective Circles. A large delegation of local King's Daughters will make the Convention a marked success.

Phillips Club Elects Officers

At the annual meeting of the Phillips club, James C. Sawyer was elected president; Lester E. Lynde, secretary; and George F. French, treasurer. Brief talks were given by several members of the teaching staff, who have recently returned from Europe, including George F. French, Warren K. Moorehead, Charles A. Parmelee, Carl F. Platteicher, Roy A. Spencer and Professor Charles H. Forbes.

Marriage

September 27, 1925, by Rev. F. A. Wilson, D.D., David Arthur Bell and Edith Wilkinson.

Bakery Sale Successful

A successful bakery sale was held under the direction of the Remembrance committee of The King's Daughters in the vacant store in the Musgrove building last Friday afternoon. Potato salad, cake, and salted nuts and candy were attractively displayed and the patronage was generous.

Mrs. Ralph Hadley was in charge and she and those who are on the committee are very grateful to the owner of the Musgrove building for the use of the store and to those who contributed in any way to the success of the sale.

Truck and Plow for Winter

At the monthly meeting of the Board of Public Works held Tuesday evening, it was voted to make application to the Massachusetts Highway Commission for a truck and plow to be used in clearing the main highway of snow this coming winter. The town will have to pay the cost of the maintenance of the plow, together with paying the chauffeur and repairs.

As 175 tons of bituminous coal is needed by the town, it was voted to authorize the clerk to call for bids on the coal.

The hydrants of the town are to be repainted red and yellow. The top of the hydrant will be a bright red and the lower part yellow. This action was taken because of the impossibility of distinguishing the hydrants in the winter time, with the top painted white.

It was also voted to install a cement sidewalk on Wolcott avenue, from the point where construction ended last year, to the end of the street.

It was also voted to re-shingle the pump house on Bancroft road.

The committee has planned to have a fine musical program. Other features will also be introduced. The committee includes Robert Winters, Vincent Hickey, William Harnely and James Dyer.

King and Queen Visit Ford Exhibit

When King George and Queen Mary visited the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley recently, the official time card prepared by the King's advisors permitted a five minutes' stay at the Ford Motor Company's exhibit, but when the royal couple reached the exhibit, they became so interested that they remained for half an hour.

Each asked eager questions and manifested deep interest both in manufacturing methods and demonstrations of Ford car quality. An assembly line, similar to the one which drew so much attention in New York during the automobile show season last January, particularly interested their majesties.

"Wonderful," exclaimed the King as a completed car was driven off the end of the line and skillfully turned around in the narrow space available.

Both the King and Queen asked numerous questions about the welfare of the employees. Working conditions of the men and their living conditions and wages were of particular interest to the Queen, as was the incident of a laborer who started in the Ford Plant at Manchester at the minimum wage and rose to a salary of 5,000 pounds a year.

Sighting the 250,000th British made Ford car, which was on display, King George was prompted to inquire the yearly production figures in England. He was informed that 40,000 Ford cars are made in England annually by British workmen.

"No wonder the roads are so crowded!" was his Royal observation.

Before leaving, both the King and Queen signed the visitor's register.

Obituary

MRS. CLARA PEATMAN

Mrs. Clara Peatman, wife of Henry Peatman, died at the family home early Sunday morning, after a long illness, aged thirty-five years. Her passing is particularly sad for besides her husband, four children, ranging in ages of one and one-half years to twelve years, survive her.

Mrs. Peatman was a member of the Bradley Mothers' club, and took a deep interest in its activities.

The funeral was held at the late home on Woburn street at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Augustus H. Fuller, pastor of the Union Congregational church, officiated and burial was in Spring Grove cemetery.

Willing Workers to Invest in Banks

The Willing Workers' society of the Methodist church held a business meeting in the vestry Monday evening, with the president, George Brown, presiding. Mrs. G. R. Moody gave the secretary's report and the treasurer's report was read by Carl Wells.

Amongst on the recent lawn party and get-together social showed that a substantial sum was realized on each event. It was voted to purchase one hundred dime banks, each holding one dollar and in the unique form of a Christmas stocking. These will be distributed to the church members and collected at the December meeting. This work will be in charge of the social committee.

It was planned to hold a Harvest supper in the community room on October 15.

Refreshments were served by the social committee at the close of the business session.

Among those present: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. White, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Nason, Joe Lord, Elwin Russell, John Russell, Carl Wells, Rev. Clifford Reynolds, Charles Nason, Mrs. Hunter V. The meeting next week will be on Tuesday evening on account of the holiday Monday.

Two candidates were initiated.

Miss Jeanette Grant was in charge of the social which followed the business meeting and the following program was carried out: piano selections by Harold Wells; guessing contest, "A Voyage of Discovery," piano solo, Harold Wells; song, Miss Margaret Reid; tap dancing, Miss Ruth Davis; contest, "A Few Tools."

The social next week will be in charge of the Good of the Order committee.

K. of C. Bowling Notes

At the meeting of bowlers of Andover council, 1078, Knights of Columbus, held in the club rooms Monday evening, plans were furthered for the bowling league that is under way next week. Eight teams will comprise the league and captains were chosen to have charge of their respective teams. The captains are: John Nelligan, Cornelius O'Brien, Arthur Beer, Archie Sullivan, Jeremiah Looney, Edward Lefelvre, Patrick Doherty, and Henry Page.

The bowling commission, which will supervise all arrangements during the coming year, was selected and is as follows: Chairman, Jeremiah O'Connor, Harold Eastwood, and James Dyer. A banquet will be held at the conclusion of the season when the winners of the prizes will be announced. A small donation at each bowling match will be used in defraying the expenses of the banquet.

Commences Teaching Duties

Eric Chandler, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Chandler of South Main street, began his teaching duties at the Howard University, Washington, D. C., recently. Mr. Chandler graduated from Bates college last June and was a ranking member of his class. He is to teach chemistry and science at the Washington school.

He was a member of the baseball and football teams while a student at Punched high school.

New England's Neighborhood Toll Service

Nowadays in New England, calling a distant telephone is as simple as calling a telephone across the street.

"Neighborhood Toll Service," in every detail, follows the familiar routine of a local call.

Signal your own operator.

Give her the number you want.

Hold the line for a completed connection or a report.

This is the fastest, simplest form of toll service known. Yet along both the highways and byways of speech, the miles must still be dealt with by men and women, and machines. You must not expect quite the speed of local calls.

With a few exceptions, we do not undertake at present to give this service to points beyond our own territory.

We do give it between more than a million telephones in five states. It is thoroughly practical, else it would not be offered.

New England Telephone and Telegraph Company

South Church C. E. Elects Committee Chairmen

The executive committee of the South Church Christian Endeavor society held a meeting at Rev. E. V. Bigelow's home last Friday evening. A new list of committee chairmen were appointed as follows:

Social Committee—Pamela Proctor.
Lookout Committee—Dorothy Douglas.

Travel Conditions on Through Routes
October 1, 1925

BULLETIN NO. 36
The following condensed statement as to conditions of highways in process of construction and repair, under direction of the Massachusetts Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, is issued monthly during the season of heaviest travel. Reports of conditions on important roads in the Commonwealth, not covered in this bulletin, will be welcome.

Information relative to road conditions is also broadcast every Friday evening at 7.45 o'clock from station WNAC, Boston.

Automobilists are requested to use detours in preference to using roads under construction wherever practicable.

Observe carefully road marks and lights. Keep to the right of the center line on curves and wherever it is marked or defined.

A map of the State showing the numbered routes is now available at 25 cents per copy.

ESSEX COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL NOTES

Extension Notes

The Extension classes in dressmaking, under the direction of Mrs. Mary M. McIntire will this week start in the fall and winter program.

Classes are already started in West Boy-ford, Danvers and West Newbury. The work so successfully started last year at the West Lynn plant of the General Electric is to be continued with a large number on the waiting list. Here they work under the most favorable conditions. As the class starts at 5:00 p.m., a lunch is provided by the company at slight cost to the girls.

For the first time, application has been received for classes to be formed for the employees of the Ipswich Mills. This work is carried on by the Extension Department of the Essex County Agricultural School, of which Miss Marion P. Crawford is the Home Demonstration Agent.

School Notes

The Danvers Grange Men's Degree Staff worked the second degree at Georgetown during the past week. H. T. Stowell, R. L. Smith, H. P. Thurlow, and R. H. Denman, instructors at this School were members of the degree staff. Instructor Stowell is serving a second term as master of the Danvers Grange.

Students at the Fair

Essex Aggie students were much in evidence at the Topsfield Fair. Not only did they help in setting up and taking down various exhibits, but they succeeded in winning some of the prizes. Paul Bubier of Rowley, won first prize on carrots. Paul Ilsey of Georgetown won first prize on melons. In the Junior Cattle judging contest, Robert Mooers of Haverhill won the first prize of ten dollars, Stanley Luce of Haverhill won second prize of seven dollars, and Harry Nelson of Cliftondale, won third prize of five dollars.

Franklin E. Heald of the State Department of Education, visited the various classes on Wednesday of this week. Mr. Heald is the Agent for Agricultural Teacher Training, and makes frequent visits to the Agricultural Department.

To Camp Vail Through Club Work

Francis Eldridge of Georgetown attended the Eastern States Exposition as the 4-H Club delegate from this county. Probably no other boy in the county has built up through club work, a good sized poultry enterprise with so little outlay.

Early in the spring of 1921, while working in the DeQuoy Poultry Farm, he purchased one hen with a brood of Wyandotte chickens. From this brood he raised five pullets. He built a 6x8 house, using wood from old boxes, and then joined the 4-H Poultry club.

In the fall of 1922, Francis entered Essex Aggie, and from that time on, he has made progress in the study of poultry.

After being one year at school, his parents bought a small farm and Francis built a brooder house and raised two hundred chickens, besides starting a strawberry bed

Firestone

Safety and Mileage For Rough Winter Driving

OPERATORS of large truck, bus and cab fleets must have rugged, long-mileage tires if they are to make money. That is why so many of them have standardized on Firestone. Experienced race drivers, almost to a man, equip with Firestone. Car owners can have this same extra safety and economy—by using Gum-Dipped Cords.

Gum-Dipping, the Firestone extra process, impregnates and insulates every fiber of every cord with rubber—insures greater safety and comfort over rough winter roads—builds extra strength and flexibility into the sidewalls—an exclusive feature that adds thousands of miles to the life of a tire.

Come in—let us save you money by equipping your car with a set of these wonderful tires—prices are still low.

of 500 plants and caring for one-half acre vegetable garden. It was not long before he was obliged to build a laying house to take care of 100 pullets.

During the past summer he has been employed by Robert Parkhurst of Boxford, where he obtained excellent experience in poultry breeding.

This young man is a leader in poultry club work, having been a member for five years. He has entered poultry judging and demonstration contests and in this work he has always reflected credit upon himself and upon the school.

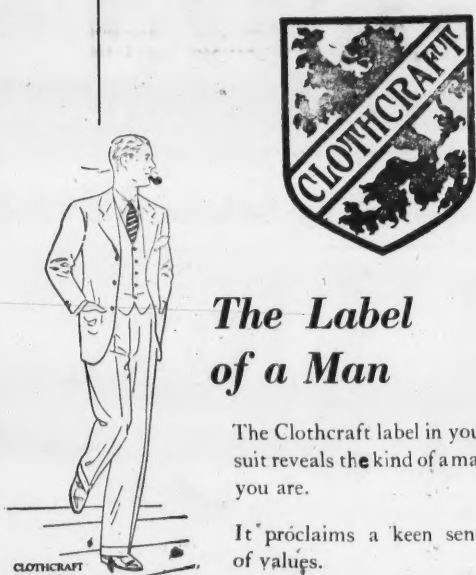

In recognition of his faithful and efficient work in 4-H Club work, he was chosen to represent Essex County at the Eastern States Exposition.

McCarthy and Sutcliffes Win

The McCarthys and the Sutcliffes of the Andover duck pin league won the opening matches of the season Tuesday night on the Essex street alleys. The Carrolls and Porters were the victims. The McCarthys took three points from the Carrolls, while the Sutcliffes did likewise to the Porters.

McCarthy was the high roller for his team, hitting a single of 124 and a triple of 318. Kelly led in the bowling for the Sutcliffes with a single of 109 and triple of 318. Kelly was awarded the prize offered by the management for the highest triple. The scores:

Found Life Happier With Gathering Years

Here's an editorial written by A. B. Farquhar, who died the other day in his eighty-sixth year. It's in the last chapter of his autobiography, and it sums up life as he saw it after he had passed the four-score mark.

And now, in conclusion, what does it all mean? What have these years taught me? Nothing of a startling nature—the incidents fade—but these principles remain:

1. That it is, as a rule, safe to trust human beings. Comparatively few are unfair, if you are fair yourself.

2. That troubles and apparent afflictions are but stepping-stones to progress—the most practical way of learning—and, as Greeley said, "The way to resume is to resume."

3. That there is nothing that will take the place of work, either to gain success or to gain happiness or to gain both—and I think it is possible to gain both if, in the striving and working for success, the dollar is not put above the man.

4. That one can and must keep faith with oneself.

5. That God is not mocked. You cannot break his laws without suffering.

6. That one's only dangerous enemy is oneself. In the ultimate no one can hurt you but yourself.

7. That friends are among the greatest assets—and the way to get friends is to be a friend.

8. That one should never seek anything for which one does not give value. This avoids the disposition to speculate—which is one of the greatest dangers that beset the business man.

Following these rules, the world grows in interest and life is happier with gathering years.—From The Nation's Business.

Delicate Instrument

There will shortly leave America an expedition that will travel half round the earth and will take daily measurements of the heat of the sun in the interest of long-range weather forecasting. It will occupy four years in this task. The instrument that will be used is a radiometer invented by the late Dr. E. F. Nichols.

This radiometer is so sensitive that the ray of a candle situated 7,000 feet away and focused upon it is sufficient to turn its vases through several hundred scale divisions. Even the face of an observer, when placed in the position previously occupied by the candle, will produce a deflection of 25 scale divisions.

It has been suggested by a humorist that with this instrument one might almost note the approach of a friend, while still some miles distant, merely by the glow of his countenance. It might even detect the sun in an English summer.—London Tit-Bits.

Everything Running

One of the funniest things that ever came up in Judge Sumnerfield's court was a suit for the annulment of a marriage, instituted by an irate father. It seems that the young couple, though their intentions had been suspected and they had been closely watched, had managed to elude the vigilance of their elders in a manner worthy of record.

"Yes, sir," cried the father, in giving his testimony. "The young scamp answers Yes and No. The right kind of dancing is excellent exercise. In addition to this, it provides pleasant social companionship. The chief trouble is that the dance hall, lacking fresh air and with a crowd in addition, is a good breeding place for colds. Then, too, it is not unusual for young people to lose sleep through regular night after night attendance at the dance hall."

Now the State Department of Health does not wish to suggest that the dance hall be abolished. The department is merely advising moderation. Young people should not spend every night at the dance hall and should not forget that there are other things of importance, such as educational entertainment and most of all the out-of-doors.

Unexpected Pleasure

One side of the famous Devil's Glen was open to the public; the other side was kept strictly private by the landlord.

An American visitor, ignoring the notice boards, was walking up the private side of the glen when he was met by a choleric old gentleman, who shouted: "What do you mean, sir, by trespassing on my property?"

"Great Scott!" replied the American. "I knew this was the Devil's Glen, but I never expected to meet the proprietor!"—London Mail.

Point Moral Lesson

"Little Apes of Nikko," sometimes known as the "Three Wise Monkeys," is the name of monkeys which appear in a mural decoration among ancient tombs at Nikko, Japan. The three monkeys are as follows: Mizaru, who sees no evil; Mikazaru, who hears no evil; and Mazaru, who speaks no evil. The legend connected with these monkeys is simply a moral idea to point out the wisdom of minding one's own affairs.

Lightning in Forests

When lightning strikes a tree the ordinary result is to splinter the wood or strip off bark through the sudden generation of steam, says Nature Magazine. In the great majority of cases the tree is not set on fire. Nevertheless the aggregate number of forest fires started by lightning is, in many parts of the country, greater than the number due to all other causes combined.

Love Songs Old as Race

The making of love songs is an ancient art. Before Pan blew upon his reedy pipes there were love songs. They were sung in the Garden of Eden before and after the serpent wiggled his way into that earthly paradise. Men wrote their magic into the first crude language of the human race when caves were used for dwelling places and the hunter went forth to the hills to strangle his prey with bare hands. Helen heard them sung to her within the walls of Troy. All through the countless ages of the world since time began there have been love songs.

FIRST MEETING SUCCESS

Woman's Club Opens Third Season With Fine Program. Gentlemen's Night Planned

The first meeting of the season of the Shawsheen Village Woman's Club was held last Monday evening in Balmoral hall, with a large attendance. A business meeting was held at which Mrs. Francis Wilson gave an interesting account of the convention of Women's clubs which was held in Swampscott during the summer.

Miss Florence Andrew entertained the members after the meeting and her program of readings were well received. Miss Andrew is an accomplished reader and several of her humorous stories were especially pleasing. The hostess committee comprised: Mrs. Clarence W. Coolidge, chairman; Mrs. Needham Brown, Mrs. Dana W. Clark, Mrs. J. Everett Collins, Mrs. Charles S. Cook, Mrs. George A. Christie, Mrs. James P. Christie, Mrs. Matthew Burns and Mrs. J. Allison Burr.

The November meeting will be observed as Gentlemen's night and the committee in charge have been fortunate to secure the services of Arthur C. Watson, who will give an illustrated lecture on "Whaling." The meeting will be held in the Assembly hall of the Administration building.

Wedding

BELL—WILKINSON

The wedding of Miss Edith V. C. Wilkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilkinson of 84 Brown street, Methuen, and D. Arthur Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bell of 413 North Main street, became known recently when members of both families learned of their secret marriage. The ceremony was performed on September 27, by the Rev. Charles W. Henry, rector at Christ Episcopal church. The witnesses were E. Barton Chapin and Mrs. C. W. Henry.

Mr. Bell, one of the most popular young men in Shawsheen and the news of his marriage comes as a distinct surprise to his many friends. He was a member of the Lawrence Masonic bowling commission last winter and is employed as a meat-cutter.

P. T. A. to Meet

The opening meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held next Wednesday evening, October 14, in the Shawsheen school hall at 7:45 o'clock. All members are urged to be present at this first meeting and any who care to join the association are cordially invited to attend.

The association performs an important work in the community and gives the parents an opportunity to discuss school affairs with the teachers out of school hours. Prominent speakers in Parent-Teacher work also tell of the various problems that have to be met both in the schools and at home.

There will be an informal reception to the teachers and a speaker will be present. Refreshments will be served.

To Play Waverly Juniors

The Shawsheen Junior football team will play their second game of the season Monday morning when they line up against the Waverly Juniors at ten o'clock. Both teams are evenly matched, each averaging from 120 to 125 pounds a man, and an excellent contest is expected. It will be Shawsheen's second game as they previously overcame the Reading Road All-Stars 57-0.

The lineups for Monday's game will be: Shawsheen: Collard, l.e., Rondeau, l.t., Murray or Hamel, l.g., Mercer, c., Levasseur, r.g., MacLachlan, r.t., Robinson, r.e., Allen, q.b., Martel, l.h.b., Murphy, r.h.b., Hamel or Murray, l.b.

Is Dancing Healthful

The State Department of Public Health answers Yes and No. The right kind of dancing is excellent exercise. In addition to this, it provides pleasant social companionship. Then, too, it is not unusual for young people to lose sleep through regular night after night attendance at the dance hall.

PERSONALS

William Blair has moved into the two-apartment house 45 Balmoral street.

Joseph T. Martin and Edward Leslie of the Administration building have returned from a motor trip to Canada.

J. Stanley Livingstone and family of 361 North Main street have gone to Port Elizabeth, South Africa, for the winter.

The Andover Square and Compass Club will hold a pop cabaret and Hallowe'en party, Friday evening, October 30, in the Shawsheen Cafeteria.

Henry Todd of Poor street has been elected chairman of the committee in charge of the fireman's annual ball which will be held Thanksgiving eve in the Town hall.

Gives Bridge Party

Mrs. C. Roger Andrews of 3 Dumbarton street entertained the members of her bridge club Wednesday afternoon, for the first meeting of their season. The hostess served a dainty luncheon at one o'clock. Fall colors were used in the decorative scheme which was carried out with a profusion of cut flowers.

In the afternoon bridge was played with the following present: Mrs. Martha M. Eaton, Mrs. Stephen K. Dyer, Mrs. Ralph Bevington, Mrs. J. Norman Anderson, Mrs. Philip Morehouse, Mrs. Ralph Abercrombie, and Mrs. John M. Erving.

Rain Ends Game

The Shawsheen-New Bedford soccer contest Saturday on the latter's grounds was called off after forty minutes of play, with New Bedford leading at the time by one goal to none. The game will go down as no contest and will be replayed at some future date, the rules stating that there is no contest unless two 35-minute halves have been played.

The Shawsheen team left the village at 8:30 Saturday morning and expected to pick up Stradan and Mills en route. Neither one put in an appearance, however, and the team played for twenty minutes without them. Ross and McCormick finally joined in. Being forced to play with nine men in the opening stages of the game greatly handicapped them and the locals were kept on the defensive most of the time, but it was not until five minutes before the game was called, that New Bedford was able to score.

The rain came down in torrents and washed away the marking on the field and with pools of water all over the field, goal playing was impossible.

Shawsheen lost the toss and were forced to face the driving rain with a handicapped team, and in the first minute of play, Murdoch had to save from Best. New Bedford immediately forced two corner kicks, but Stevens failed on both of them. Shortly after, Maxwell was going through the Shawsheen defense when he was dropped in his tracks, but Montgomery lifted the ball over the bar on the free kick just outside the penalty area.

It was about this time that Ross and McCormick made their appearance and with a full team on the field, Shawsheen was able to put on an offense, but Cook was wide on a pass from McGowan. Soon Turner shot the ball in from a difficult angle for the only score of the game. Some nice passing gave Shawsheen a chance to even the score but McGowan collided with Shaw and the opportunity was lost. The Shawsheen player was knocked unconscious and had to be carried from the field. He revived and was coming out to play again when the referee called the game, being afraid that the slippery nature of the field might result in further injury of a more serious nature.

The team will have a busy week-end and will play two games here. Tomorrow they will face the J. and P. Coates team who are just below them in the standing, and on Monday will meet the New York Giants who lost their first game of the season last Sunday.

The summary of Saturday's game:
NEW BEDFORD
Shaw, g.; Murdoch, l.b., Ross, r.b., Thompson, l.h.b., Lorrimer, c.h.b., Wilson, c.b., Dickson, c.b., Turner, r.o.f., Loaf, Cook, Rainey, r.i.f., Stevens, c.f., Maxwell, l.i.f., Best, l.o.f.

P. A. Athletics

Phillips Andover academy won its first game of the season on Saturday, mainly because Capt. "Hal" Sandberg was capable of booting a field goal from the 30-yard mark in the second period. A pretty forward pass from Sandberg to Gill for a net gain of 12 yards, which was helped along by a penalty inserted against the visitors, put the blue captain in a fine position to kick the oval over the cross bar just inside the uprights which gave him team a 3 to 0 victory over Dean academy of Franklin.

Both teams were handicapped by the poor weather conditions and were unable to present their best. However, they did very well and gave the few hundred fans present plenty of entertainment. A forward passing attack by the Dean boys in the final period brought the ball away down into the Blue's territory, but a costly fumble which was recovered by a blue-jerseyed warrior probably saved a defeat for the Andover team.

Next Saturday the Harvard Freshmen with one of the best yearling teams in many years will oppose Andover in what should be a real battle. John Prio and Sam Burns, regulars at Andover last year, will be with the Crimson subs.

The summary:

SERVICES CURTAILED

Lack of Interest and Attendance Is Discussed at Special Meeting. Services Now Once Each Month

A business meeting of those interested in the community religious services, was held immediately after the service last Sunday evening, with Rev. C. W. Henry presiding. The principal topic of discussion was in regard to the advisability of continuing the services as conducted at present. The executive committee felt that the meetings should not be held this season, although they recommended that the organization remain in force in case there should be a demand for continuation of the work. Some of the congregation thought that the meetings should be held twice a month, while others thought once a month would be sufficient for the present.

The final vote was to the effect that hereafter meetings will be held in Balmoral hall at 7:30 p.m. on the first Sunday of the month. In addition there will be combined church and Sunday school services on occasion, notably at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter time.

It is planned to invite various preachers to preach in preaching at these services and several very fine pianists and soloists have volunteered their services to supply the musical part of the program.

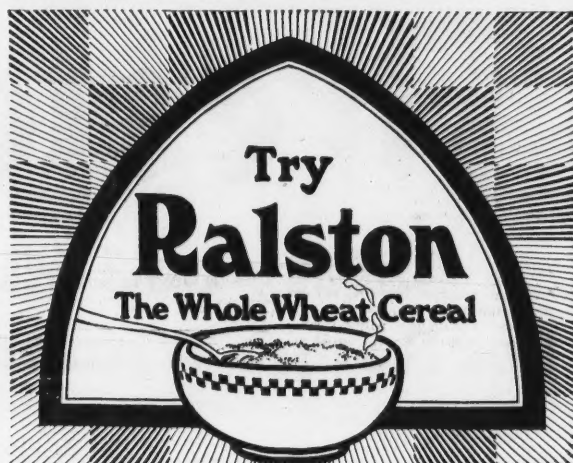

The Shawsheen Village community Sunday school held its first session of the season last Sunday morning in Balmoral hall at 9:30. There was a surprisingly large attendance, ninety-one scholars and teachers being present, and the school gives every indication of again breaking its record for size and attendance.

A few changes have had to be made in the teaching force, but several have volunteered to take the places of those who resigned, and at present only one more teacher is needed to make the organization complete. The kindergarten has grown so large that it is cramped for space, but it is hoped that additional room will be obtained, so that Miss Alice Chase and her staff can carry on the work properly. There are ten classes altogether, this year; two in the kindergarten and eight in the primary and senior departments.
